On the Gulf an Important Question to be Discussed.

State Senator, Mrs. Platte of Colorado, to be Here.

Texas is interested in the Trans-Missle sippi congress, because Texas having sea and deep water ports is interested in the products of Kansus and in her commerce. South Kansus and Oklahoma are looking to gulf ports, especially, for the future. rather than to the farther away lakes and the Atlantic. The interest is therefore mutual, and the governor of that state has signified his intention of attending the congress which meets at Wichita on the last days of the present month. Houston, the conceded railway center of that great state, already a scaport in a sense, is to become a greater one by the despening of the bayon which connects that city with the Guif. And Houston is not only a railroad center, but a commercial center o rapidly growing importance and magnitude, a city of widenwake, enterprising men, and a city aspiring to enterinin the Trans-Mississippl corgress in 1909. To that end a numerous delegation of strong men may be expected here, not only for the rlandship of the men and interests of Oklahoma and South Kansaa, while setting form the advantages of Houston as a seaport. Among the many letters received by the surrelary of the congress from at sheriff's sale for the amount of judgthat state probably mone sets out so fucidly and strongly the advantages contemplated than one from Congressman Blosson, which we herewith reproduce

Houston, Tex., May 4, 1899. Honorabia J. Hudson McKnight, Secretary, Wishits, Kan.

My Dear Sir .- Answering your esteemed favor of April 17, containing as it did the official cad for the Commercial congress, I would say that Houston will be well represented at Wichita with a strong delegation. We appreciate most fully the nec city of the co-operation of Konsus and other states of the northwest in securing here a nimportant "deep water" port, the specess of which is now nearly assured. We also appreciate the important for lately developed by the up-to-date secre tary of our Business league, Tom Richard. Wightta and the immense wheat diarries idiscent to your thriving city, and that henceforth the bulk of Kansas export wheat crop will come this shorter down hill route to occur. Our Houston people also approciate the enterprise shown by Wichits in securing the "Trans-Missis sippt Commercial congress," and later in providing the funds to entertain the heat ored greets of an many states of on on, and the printing and distributing of a city of its full proceedings to sens tors, congressmen, heads of departments in Washington, and to all the commercia organizations of the west. Such a broad gauge manner of advertising others should and will redound to the building up of Wichita, a great commercial city on what was once the rich Kansas plains We will be with you in ferce from the 'sunny south' and anticipate a verprofitable meeting of those whose every in

BLACK CROCK WAS POOR

But the Scenery Was Admitted to be mapurb. Hagen's "Black Crook" at the opera house last night resembled no previous performance of the "Black Crook" ever presented in Wichita. The scenery used in the production was gorgeous, but the acting was very poor. It seems the managament of the company engaged some of the homeliest girls in the theatrical profeelon. Mr. P. Band os Karl simply made a farce comedy not of every situation supposed to be contained in the show. The were performed by poor variety perform-ers, who were at times vulgar in their urns. Vulgarity is not wit, as some of these comedians (2) imagine. If the people in the company were as clever as the cenety was fine the performance would have been a good one. Next week the Hoyt big comedy company will play at the Crawford Grand, presenting "The Cattle King" as opening

Petitions and petitions have been started for Dr. Clawson at Wichita and Arkanaas City. Mrs. Carter called on the doctor yesterday at the fall with a petition on which were nearly two hundred names of merchants, lawyers, physicians-everybody. This and the news of other petitions seemed to please Mr. Clawson and he has grown so much more hopeful than at first that he talks hardly like the wame man. He was brisk and lively yester-

Do you know, hated to come to Wichita. I don't know why, but I had rather gone anywhere else. but since I came. I love the town and the people. I suppose I should have hated to go anywhere though. I expected my wife and little girl up to see me today. I don't know why they haven't come. I don't believe they have heard from me, though l mailed them a letter yesterday telling back, 45c up. them to come as quickly as they could And they wrote me they would be here if they heard. Here is a letter from my little girl."

The doctor took a letter from Mrs. Clawson from his pocket and handed the re-porter the following letter in a plain, childish, simple hand

"May 4th, 1899. "Dear Papa-I am coming to see you Friday, and today Miss Sinett gave me some candy and bananus. Mamma made me a new dress last night and I am going to wear it when I come to see you.
